

Art-Craft Club Notes

Discussion of new by-laws constituted the principal business of Torrance Arts and Crafts Club meeting held at the home of Mrs. Bettina Miller Friday evening. President Frances Snodgrass conducted the business meeting.

Ceramics and leather work occupied the group and at the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served from a table decorated to suggest the May Day theme. Centerpiece was a Maypole and diminutive dancing girls. Hostesses for the social hour were Bettie Thomas and Eva Thomas. The cleverly designed dancers were fashioned by Mrs. Eva Thomas, members learned.

During the summer members will meet monthly, resuming semi-monthly sessions in September.

KAY PREBLE CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

The eleventh birthday of Kay Ellen Preble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Preble, 1706 W. 265th street was the incentive for a gay party. Games and refreshments afforded fun for the following guests: Gail Travers, Patricia Kaempfer, Suzanne Rafael, Susan Anderson, Glenda Jones, Diane Schildmeyer, Joan Harris, Moret Shaw, Wanda Wall, Janet Ford and Charlene Farrar.

Edith Smith Carragher Heads Soroptimist Club

Plans are nearing completion for the charter party and installation of officers of the newly organized Soroptimist Club of the Harbor District at Smith Bros. Fish Shanty 4024 Pacific Coast highway, Walters, on Saturday, June 4, at 7 p.m.

The new Soroptimist Club of the Harbor District is sponsored by the Los Angeles Soroptimist Club. Its membership is comprised of business women of San Pedro, Wilmington, Harbor City, Lomita and Torrance.

EDITH SMITH CARRAGHER

Mrs. Mary Wiley Eisen, a member of the Los Angeles club, will act as installing officer. Edith Smith Carragher will be seated as president. Other officers are Beatrice E. Hards, vice-president; Winona Ellis, secretary; and Hazel Scott Coomes, treasurer.

Honored guests who will participate in the charter affair include Emily N. Ziegler, regional director of the southwestern region, and Alda Dyson, member of the board of directors of the southwestern region.

The new Soroptimist Club of the Harbor District will be added to the 20,000 active Soroptimists in clubs throughout the world. The name selected by this organization was coined from two Latin words, "Soro" meaning sister and "Optimo" meaning the "best and highest good." The combination of these words resulted in the name "Soroptimist" and was the basis of the Soroptimist motto "The Best For Women."

The aims and objects of Soroptimist Clubs are: loyalty to country, encouragement of meritorious civic movements for the betterment of civic conditions, fostering of high ethical standards in business and professional life, the promotion of a spirit of service and true friendship among members and development of efficiency of women and the advancement of women generally by dignifying the occupations in which they are engaged.

CAMPING TRIP ENJOYED BY SADDLE CLUB

A happy group of Little Hills Saddle Club members, numbering about 30, arrived home Monday after a two-day holiday spent at Portuguese Bend in Palos Verdes.

The group left Sunday morning about 8:30 o'clock on horseback taking camping equipment and food for the two-day holiday. Having the use of the clubhouse on the beach they held a picnic social and dance in the evening and, at a late hour, prepared for camp. Swimming, dancing, gathering beautiful seashells and just having a good vacation from work and everyday events.

Camp-Davis Marriage Is Solemnized

St. Matthew's, Lutheran Church in Wilmington was the setting for the marriage of Miss Hazel Marie Davis, daughter of Mrs. Irene E. Davis and the late Harvey E. Davis, of 1023 Madrid-avenue, to Mr. Kenneth Deane Camp, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Camp, of 1940 253rd place, Lomita.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

After a honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead, the couple plan to reside in Lomita.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH DEANE CAMP

Lomita Folk To Vacation In Alaska

Bonnie Brown, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newell H. Brown, will accompany her grandmother, Mrs. P. M. Peterson to Alaska for a never-to-be-forgotten vacation leaving here June 3. Both live at 2324 W. 250th street.

Bound for Anchorage where little Bonnie will visit an aunt, the vacationers will travel by train and boat to arrive at their destination and next fall will return by air in time for Bonnie's enrollment at Lomita Elementary School.

On Tuesday Margaret Barum, Linda Starret and Marie Randall, all girlhood friends of Bonnie successfully planned a surprise party for their friend and invited others to join them for a farewell party.

Gifts were presented to Bonnie and decorations on the festive cake were quite appropriate with a train, boat, and airplane.

Tipica Music To Entertain Picnickers

A colorful program of Mexican tipica music, with songs and dances, will entertain strollers in San Pedro's Point Fermin park Sunday-afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m. when the city's Mexican Tipica Orchestra gives a free public concert, under the auspices of the Los Angeles Bureau of Music.

Led by the genial conductor-composer Jose Cordoba Cantu, the orchestra will be heard in several of his inimitable arrangements of Mexican melodies, and also will play his march, "Eugene Biscailuz," composed in honor of the popular sheriff. Lalo Robles and Lidia Leriget will be the vocalists, with Carlota Bernal and Raquelito Vasquez being seen in vivid Mexican folk dances.

Visits Son

Mrs. Willis Brooks was a recent visitor at Santa Fe, N. M., where she spent several days with her son, Comet Brooks, director of Southwest Diagnostic Laboratory there.
